HAS VISTORS.

Since the boy has been retained at the county jail, although not kept in a cell, but instead allowed liberty in the sheriff's rooms, corridors and outdoors, he has become a great favorite with the officers. Many we men of the city have also visited in the kitchen and about the officers have the boy asked that he not be left to sleep alone at night, as the result of a dream, in which he explained that his dead father appeared and ordered him to kill himself as reparation for the crime. The boy, in a daze, is said to have gone in to the fail kitchen, where he procured a kindle. The kindle was taken from him by the officers before he could inflict any damage. Since that night Ray has slept in a room with a deputy sheriff.
